

The school staff will...

- Work in partnership with you to ensure that your child's time in school is as happy and successful as possible
- Be as open, welcoming and responsive as possible and give you opportunities to get involved in your child's education
- Help your child become a successful, confident, independent learner
- Endeavour to engage your child in learning that both develops and stretches them and excites their imagination so they enjoy the richness of their learning
- Provide a caring, positive and safe environment that promotes your child's spiritual, social, physical and moral development and promotes their emotional well-being
- Sensitively manage your child's transition into each new class or phase of education so that it is as relaxed and successful as possible
- Maintain open two way communication about general information and about your child in particular

Busbridge Infant School

Home School Agreement

Values:

At Busbridge Infant School, the school values of Respect, Resilience, Collaboration and Creativity, combined with British Values and the school's Golden Rules are at the heart of children's learning and the continual pursuit of excellence.

- A school environment in which everyone enjoys developing their mental and physical abilities through developing Respect.
- Whole school and individual staff professional development to ensure the highest quality of teaching and learning through developing Resilience.
- Opportunities to work with other children and adults in a friendly atmosphere and so develop social skills in co-operating with each other through developing Collaboration.
- An environment that vigorously pursues excellence through developing Creativity.

Vision:

The continual pursuit of excellence

Aims:

We aim to help our children, with the co-operation of their parents and carers to;

- develop into happy and confident individuals with a secure foundation in learning that will last throughout their lives.
- develop lively and enquiring minds through knowledge with understanding.
- establish a command of the subjects contained in the National Curriculum.
- value and understand religious and moral beliefs and develop a respect for the views of others.
- understand something of the world in which we live with regard for our mutual dependence on others as individuals, groups and communities.
- appreciate human achievements and aspirations.
